

Pupil Parliament Curriculum Meeting Autumn Term 2023/24

Meeting 2nd October 2023

Attendees

Prime Minister

Aurelio Morrell

Deputy Minister

Lyla Lehman

Ministers of our the School Curriculum

Isaac, Poppy, Bobby

What's going on in the curriculum right now?

English:

Lyla has organised a Pyjama themed Breakfast with Books in conjunction with Year 1.

Lyla has created a letter which has formed part of the parent letter to go out this week.

On the day, Lyla and her team, will support the Breakfast with Books whole school assembly and will read one of the themed books to the whole school.

Lyla will also support the 500 words writing initiative: she will consider ways in which to do this. Perhaps collate entries, create a whole-school book and share some of these in an assembly.

Children shared some ideas regarding careers week.

Music:

Poppy, alongside her class peers, has created a dance class held twice a week during lunch.

Maths: Bobby look into to leading and promoting Maths Week England.

Actions

- Minister to divide the curriculum subjects between them and begin researching National Days and initiatives to share in the next meeting.
- Consider careers week: children to come up with people/professions linked the curriculum they feel would be beneficial and help raise aspirations.

Next Meeting Date:

16th October
